

having great vocabulary, didn't save the
THESAURUS
 from extinction / eradication / extirpation

Writing synonym poems is as easy as using a thesaurus.

- To write your poem choose any word.
- Write that word in capital letters on the first line.
- Then using your thesaurus look up the word and find three to five synonyms (words that have the same meaning).
- Write the synonyms on the second line.
- On the third line, write a descriptive phrase about the word.
- The last two lines of the poem should rhyme. Here is an example:

POEM

Rhyme, ballad, jingle, verse

This example couldn't be worse

Try your hand at writing a synonym poem about your zine topic.

LOVE

Attachment, devotion, warmth, adore
 Love is so pure, right down to the core

NOISE

Clamor, uproar, hullabaloo
 These things can really annoy you

